November 15, 1956

Dear Mom and Dad,

We, the Senior Class of 57, want to show our appreciation for your guidance and unselfish love in the past years. You have guided us along the first twelve steps of life, always patient and seldom complaining. To voice thoughts too deep to be expressed, we dedicate this edition of the Cohisan to you, our parents.

A LETTER TO YOU

Class Of 1957

Route 3, Nashville, N.C.

November 15, 1956

Dear Friends,

We of the Cohisan Staff have selected as the theme for our 1956-57 yearbook, "A Letter to You." The hours we spent on selecting pictures, on writing copy, on drawing layouts were with the idea in mind that without the help, guidance, and co-operation of our parents and teachers we could never have gone so far, yet made so much progress.

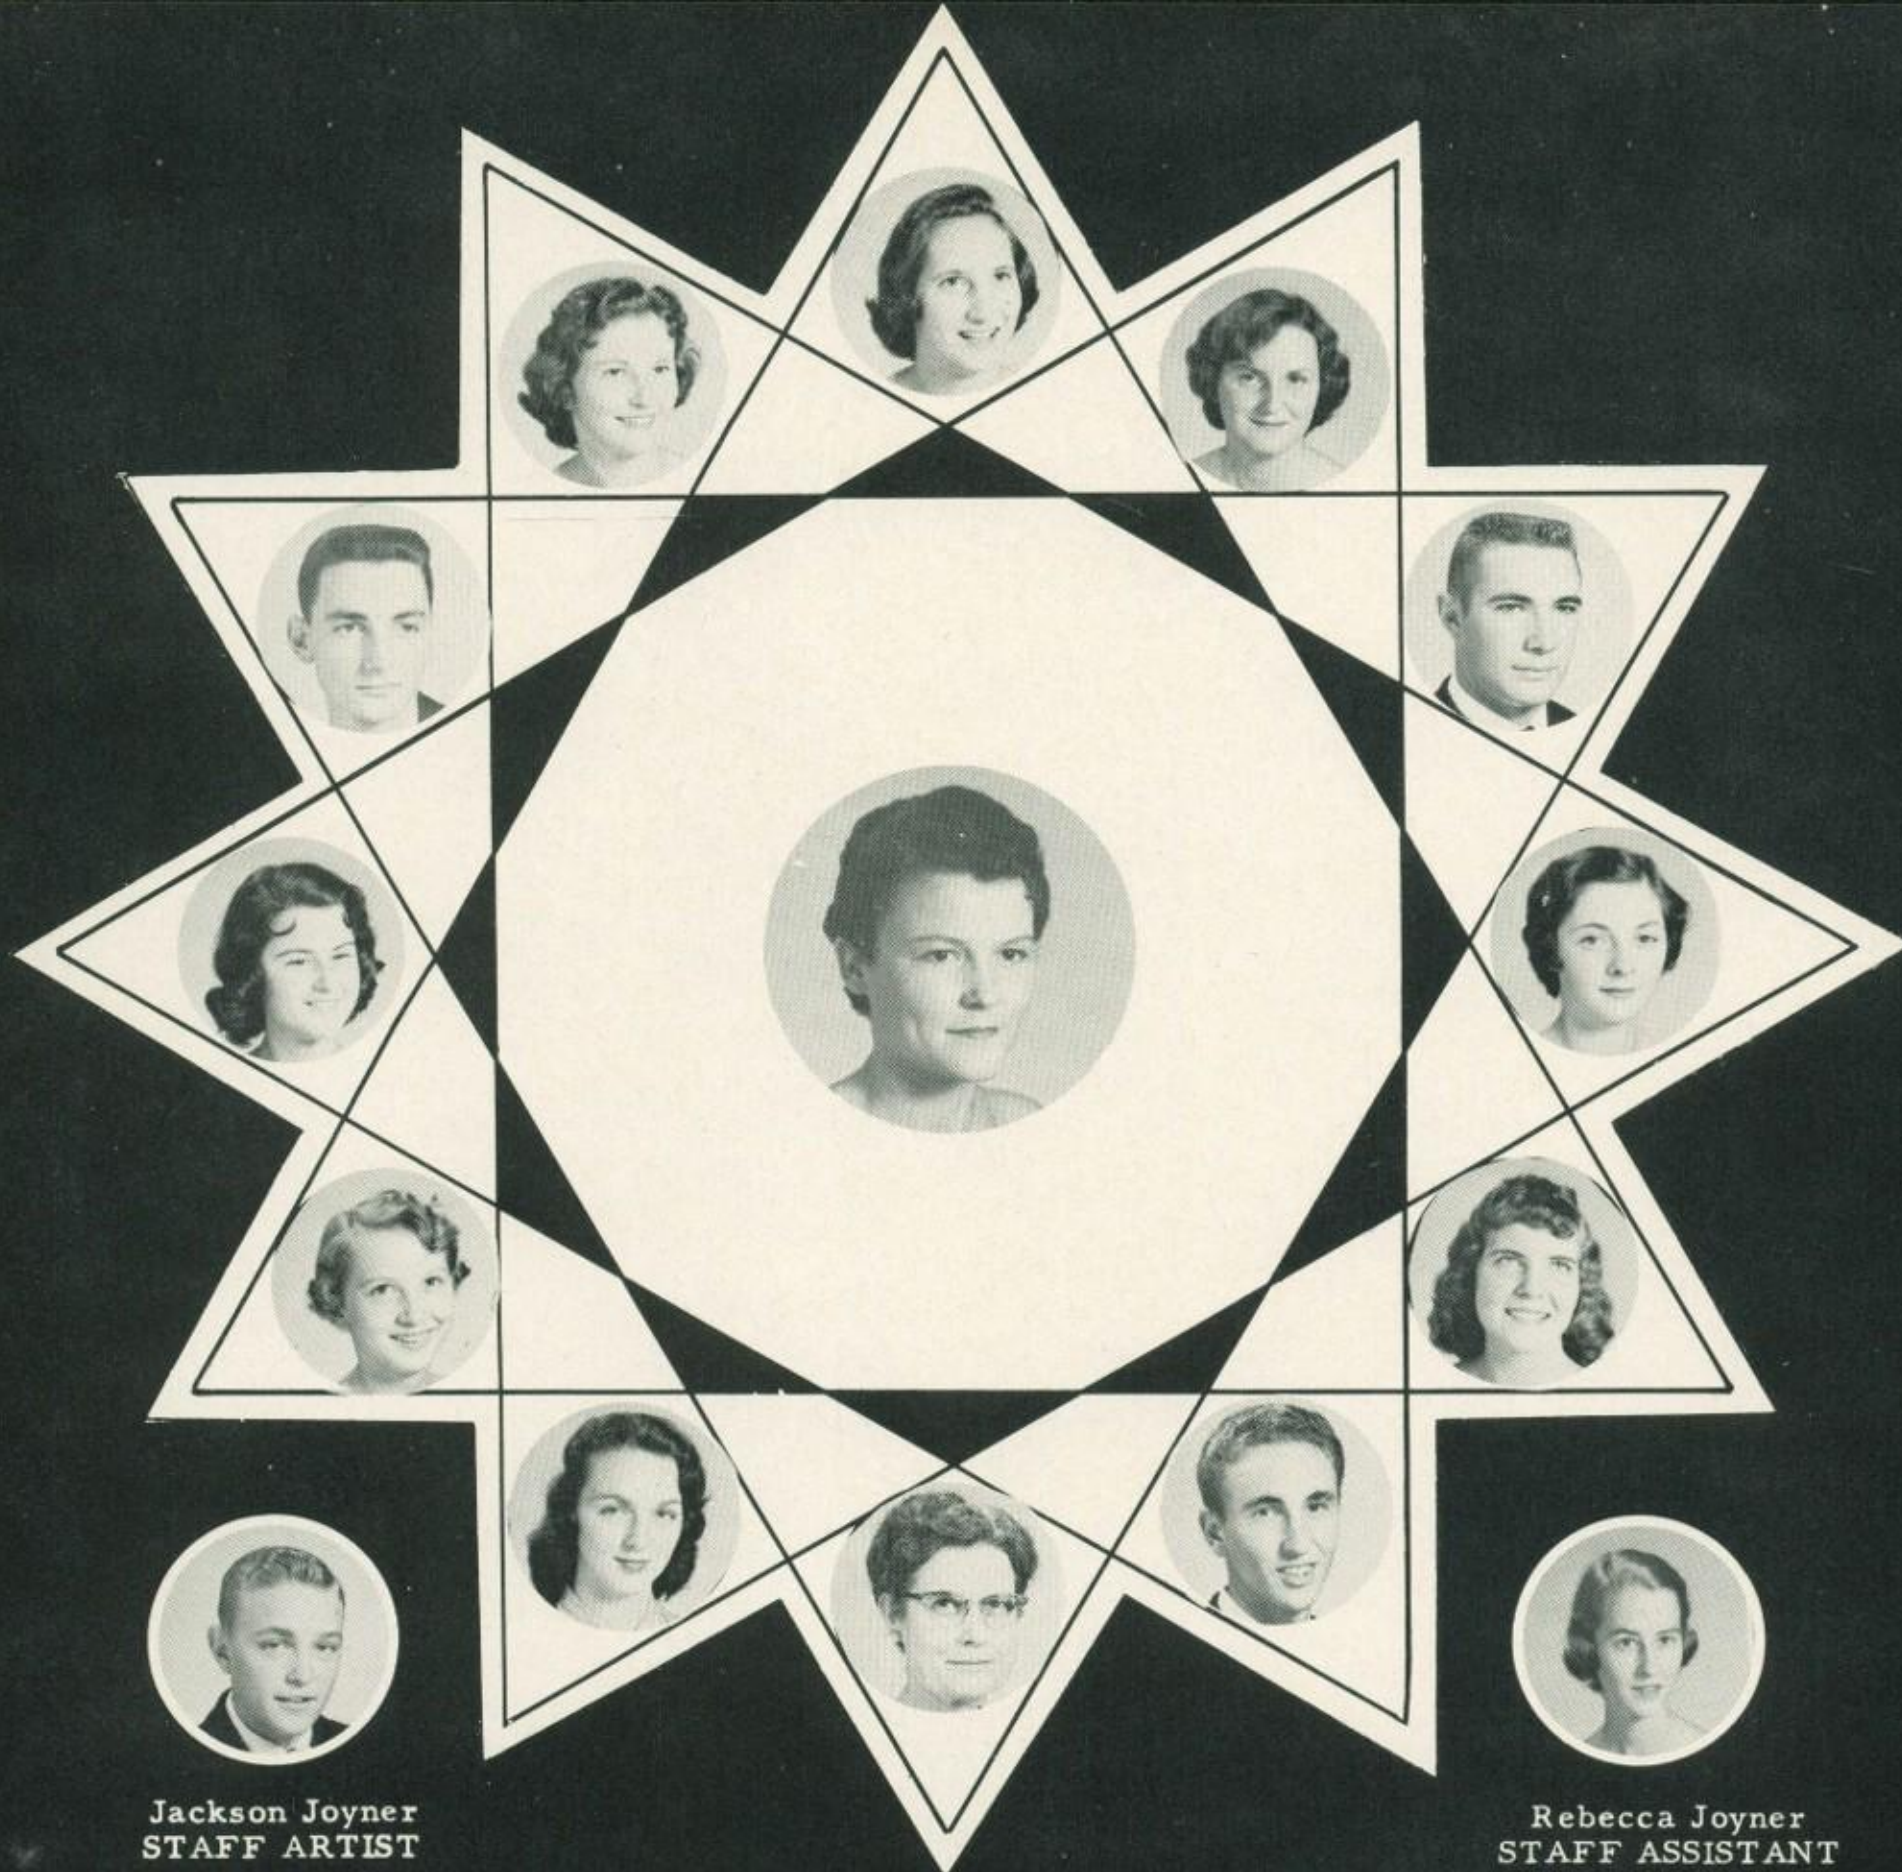

As we remember the years we spent at C. H. S., one of our dearest hopes was to graduate. Now we look back over those years as being the best and most eventful of our lives so far. While thumbing through these pages, may all of us recall memories of the happy days at C. H. S.

Sincerely,

Annual Staff

AN OPEN LETTER

To: Our Former Elementary Teachers

From: The Class of 1957

In this book, our final major effort at school, we are happy to dedicate a page to you. For years all of you have watched your former fidgety, chattery children grow in stature and mature in mind. Soon we shall be marching down the aisle with measured beat and slow. For your patient effort and constant encouragement, our sincere thanks.

Pictured on this page are the Class of 1957 as we were. Little rascals or little angels? We leave you to say. In the following pages you will find us as we are, soon to become alumni of Coopers High School. Can you identify all of us? Happy guessing!

CLASS SONG

Now Is the Hour
Tune: "Now is the Hour"

Now is the hour when we must say good-bye
Soon we'll be leaving Dear Old Coopers High.
When we return we hope to find you here,
Teachers and classmates who have been so dear.

Now, classmates all, we now must say adieu.
You've been so patient, helpful, kind, and true.
You've helped us face our futures with a smile.
You'll be with us as we walk down the aisle.

We hope to gain our goals by steady strife.
Soon we'll be traveling down our road of life.
Our thoughts of you will linger through the years.
You'll be there with us through our joys and tears.

CLASS POEM

To Each and All

We'll soon face life with grateful memories of Dear Old Coopers High,
Where each has had his ups and downs and met them with a sigh.
We ne'er can thank you, but we hope by steady toil and strife.
We may return your kindness for guiding us down our road of life.

To all our classmates dear, we now must say a fond good-bye.
For school will soon be ending. Yes, our future's drawing nigh.
We never can forget you, friends, with all your loving ways.
You've made our high school years complete by brightening up our days.

To every teacher on our staff, we all would like to say,
"You've shown us kindness, hope, and love in every possible way.
Without your constant faith in us, we never could have gained
The very least of all the goals we seem to have attained."

Our principal, in our book, is certainly number one.
How can we show our earnest thanks for all that he has done?
With all our hearts we're grateful. Now we'd like for you to know
There's no one else on earth that we respect or honor so.
